Re-Evaluating Our Profession and the Future of Embalming

Christie K. Winn is the former Chemistry, Arts and Embalming teacher at the Dallas Institute of Funeral Service. She has worked in the funeral service industry for over 12 years, holding embalmers license in Texas and Oklahoma. She received her Bachelor of Science in Molecular Biology at Hampton University and Master of Science at Tennessee State University as a member of their Masters/Ph.D. bridge program. She then returned home to attend the Dallas Institute of Funeral Service in August 2002. During that time, she worked for the Dallas County Crime Division and Evergreen Funeral Home. She operates Sunset Concepts and co-owns TC Consultant Group; in addition, Christie is married to Edward David Winn, II of House of Winn Funeral Home in Muskogee and Okmulgee, OK.

The Above Average Embalmer

Mark E. Fisher is owner and president of M.E. Fisher Funeral Home Inc. in Newport News, Virginia. He has more than 20 years of funeral service experience. He is licensed embalmer / funeral director in Virginia and North Carolina. Mark holds a Mortuary Science degree from John Tyler Community College, Chester, Virginia, and a Bachelor's degree in instrumental music education from Virginia State University. He currently is serving his second term on the Science Examination Committee of the International Conference of Funeral Service Examining Boards and is the Vice President of Alpha Lambda Chapter, END.
